Bolles, William

To Mrs. Maria (Weston) Chapman

Ms.A.9.2

Vol.19

No.15

New London, Conn.: The writer considers The Brotherhood of Thieves "eminently an anti slavery work" which he wishes to see used in the service of the cause. Suggests publishing extracts in the Liberator with a commendatory notice. Three thousand copies have been printed, and Mr. (Stephen S.) Foster was furnished with two thousand to be disposed of for his benefit. The writer thinks that a similar plan by all agents in regard to cheap antislavery literature "would have a tendency to approximate a self-sustaining basis for the anti-slavery movement."

To William Lloyd Garrison

Plainfield, (Conn.). Has been "rambling about a ride in the stage from Keene to New Ipswich, N.H. Comments on the intemperance of his fellow passengers. Tells of lecturing in New Ipswich. The following day was extremely cold. Had a friendly argument with a lawyer. Left New Ipswich for Providence, R.I. H. B. Stanton wants him to work there. Left Providence for Newport and Block Island, where he gave several lectures under the sponsorship of the local minister, "a 'teetotaler,' as the English have it ..." Found Block Islanders strongly prejudiced against the colored people.

McKim. W.L.G. supported J. M. M.'s side of the controversy. Purvis was "pronounced disorderly" by a vote of the meeting because of his vituperative language. "Anna Dickinson spoke about thirty minutes in condemnation of the Republican party; ..." Mentions addresses by Rev. H. Blanchard and S. J. May. May was not looking well. The opinion of the Supreme Court of the U.S. in the case of John B. Church vs. Tuthill Hubbard.

[Supreme Court.] Concerning the seizure of the ship Aurora at the port of Para, held for illicit trade with Portugal, the Circuit Court in trial accepted, as legal, copies of the Edicts of Portugal which, in point of law, were not legal, not having been properly authenticated. On these grounds it is the opinion of the Supreme Court that the judgement must be reversed with costs and the cause remanded to be again tried in the Circuit Court. A.D. 6p. 12 1/2 x 7 3/4 in.

To Nathan Smith, New Haven, Connecticut.

[Washington, D.C.] Mr. Smith of Hartford has been trying to obstruct the passage of the bill, but the chairman of the committee, Mr. Hempfield, says that the question of internal improvements is certain to be taken up. Probably it will come with the bill for constructing the road from Buffalo to New Orleans. That would open the way for the provision of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the South Carolina canals. Fears that there will be too much discussion to get the bill through in the present session. A.L.S. 2p. 10 x 8 in.

Washington City. The writer maintains that the Abolitionists are increasing in numbers, and that the slaveholders now realize it. The reports of the Secretaries of the Navy and War Departments accompanying the President's message ask for increased protection for that part of the country, which is weak because of its "peculiar institutions." The writer encloses ten dollars to be used at the addressee's discretion in promoting emancipation. Gives in detail an account of the votes taken in Congress upon the question of revising the rules of the past Congress, counting the votes by "free states" and by parties.
